HELP NAME THE NEXT NEWPRENEUR OF THE YEAR

The entry period is now closed but the contest is not over. The judges are at work, deciding who will be the five semi-finalists from each of the six regions. Register for a regional semi-final event in October and check back around September 22 to meet the 30 semi-finalists and read about their ideas.

Jimmy Chiang, Way Basics

You hurt your back carrying it home, forgot to buy a hammer, misplaced a screw, and you don't understand the instructions. Let's face it; you are no MacGyver when it comes to assembling furniture. Fortunately, Way Basics offers the simplest DIY furniture requiring no tools or PhD's. Simply peel tape, stick boards together, and you're done (really!). Crafted from zBoards, they turn post consumer recycled paper into superbly strong boards that weigh over 60% less than particle board. Add in vibrant colors, endless modular configurations and the fact that it is light on your wallet; it's pretty much a no brainer. Way Basics, everyday simple furniture for better living.
